Detailed itinerary

Day 1

After your arrival in Yerevan, you will have a transfer to the hotel. After some rest, you will enjoy a short introductory ride through the city to stretch the legs after travel. According to the cuneiform inscription of Urartian King Argishti Yerevan was built in 782 BC. Some decades ago Alexander Tamanyan, the general architect of Yerevan drew the contemporary masterplan of the city which we can see today. The warm smiles of its inhabitants give the unique charm to this eternal city, ancient and so young at the same time. You will pass by Republic Square, the Opera House, and Northern Avenue, getting a first impression of Armenia's capital.

Overnight: Hotel in Yerevan

Day 2

This day you will leave Yerevan and head to the north through scenic countryside and quiet roads. En route you will visit Hovhanavank and Saghmosavank monasteries, both dramatically located on the edge of a beautiful canyon. You will continue your journey to Aparan enjoying open landscapes and gradual ascents along the way.

Overnight: Hotel in Aparan

Meals: Breakfast

Day 3

After the breakfast, you will start your travel across Armenia's highland plateau, passing by rural villages and enjoying wide-open scenery. You will have a stop at Harichavank Monastery, a significant medieval complex with sweeping views. The trip will continue to Artik village known for its stone architecture. Your final destination will be Gyumri – a cultural center and the second largest city in Armenia. The city is the regional center and has the history dating back at least five thousand years. Geographically it is situated in the Shirak Valley, on the left bank of the Akhuryan River. In the evening, you will reach Gyumri for a rest and overnight.

Overnight: Hotel in Gyumri

Meals: Breakfast

Day 4

In the morning you will leave Gyumri and head toward Trohkan Waterfall, one of the country's most impressive natural landmarks. The route will pass through mountainous terrain and forested areas before continuing to Spitak and onward to Vanadzor, set among green hills.

Overnight: Hotel in Vanadzor

Meals: Breakfast

Day 5

Today's journey takes you into the lush forests of Dilijan National Park where you will visit Haghartsin Monastery, hidden deep in the woods, and then have a short drive to Parz Lake, a tranquil mountain setting ideal for a break. Finally, you will reach Dilijan, a lush spa resort often referred to as the "Armenian Switzerland". A stroll in the historical district will let you experience the atmosphere of the old town as it was in the 19th century. The imaginatively carved balconies so typical for the 19th century Dilijan display the region's historical love for fine woodwork.

Overnight: Hotel in Dilijan

Meals: Breakfast

Day 6

In the morning you will leave Dilijan and head to Lake Sevan, the “blue pearl of Armenia” and one of the highest freshwater lakes in the world located at about 2000 meters above sea level. Here you will visit Sevanavank monastery which was found in 874 by Princess Mariam. Your trip will continue to Artanish and Chambarak through beautiful countryside and small villages. At the end of the day, you will reach Ijevan town situated in the valley of Aghstev River at an average height of 755 meters above sea level. The surrounding mountains are covered with thick forests, turning into alpine meadows in some areas.
