Detailed itinerary

Day 1

After your arrival, you will be transferred to your hotel in Yerevan and checked in. You will start your trip with a city tour around the ancient capital of Armenia. According to the cuneiform inscription of Urartian King Argishti Yerevan was built in 782 BC. Some decades ago, Alexander Tamanyan, the general architect of Yerevan drew the contemporary masterplan of the city which we can see today. The warm smiles of its inhabitants give a unique charm to this eternal city ancient and so young at the same time. One of the stops will be in Matenadaran Museum, which houses over 17,000 ancient and medieval manuscripts, making it the significant bearer of one of the largest collections in the world. Next, you will visit the Blue Mosque built in 1764-1768 by Husayn Ali Khan. The tour will end with the visit to the Armenian Genocide memorial complex dedicated to the victims of Genocide executed in 1915.

Day 2

This day you will drive to the scenic canyon of the Azat River. The 7th-century Geghard Cave Monastery is located deep at the bottom of the canyon and is listed by UNESCO as a World Heritage Site. The monastery complex is carved from the adjacent mountain as well as partially built from the local basalt stones. The tour will continue to Garni village, where is located Garni temple known for its unique architecture in Hellenistic style. Garni's complex also consists of a royal bath which exhibits a fascinating hypocaust along with a well-preserved original mosaic tiling.
