Detailed Itinerary

Day 1

Meeting at the airport. Transfer to the hotel. Free day in Baku. Baku is the capital of Azerbaijan and its scientific, cultural, and industrial center. After the second oil boom in 2006, the city became modern with unique, extraordinary, jaw-dropping masterpieces. During your free time, you can just stroll in the city center, feel the atmosphere, have a cup of tea or coffee in local cafes, and admire the attractive architecture.

Overnight: Hotel in Baku

Day 2

The day will start with a trip out of Baku to Gobustan National Park. The area is known for its petroglyphs, mud volcanoes, and gas stones. All this heritage is protected by UNESCO. In the Gobustan Museum, you will explore the different archaeological finds of this area. Later, you will feel like strolling around the Mars surface while exploring the grey-beige cracked earth with the mud volcanoes. After the tour to Gobustan, you will be driven back to Baku.

Day 3

Today you will have a Baku sightseeing tour including all the important historical and architectural sights. You will see the Flag Square, the House of Government, the Philharmonic Theatre named after M. Magomayev, and the Baku Mayor's Office. Then the tour will continue to the Old City, which has preserved its ancient architecture and narrow cobbled streets to this day. The Old City Tour will include the Palace of the Shirvan Shahs (15th century), the symbol of the city – Maiden Tower (9th century), caravanseray, mosques, and more.

Later in the day, you will visit the Heydar Aliyev Cultural Center, a masterpiece of modern architecture designed by Zaha Hadid. The tour will also include a stop at the Azerbaijan Carpet Museum, where you can explore the rich history and craftsmanship of Azerbaijani carpet weaving.

Day 4

Your first stop on the fourth day will be the Diri Baba Mausoleum in Maraza village. The next stop will be in the city of Shamakhi, with its largest mosque in the Caucasus. Then, you will head to Nij village, where you will forget about modern life and feel in a special world. Here is a unique small church of Udi people. There are only a few thousand Udi people in the world today, and the majority, approximately 4000, live in this area and village in Azerbaijan. They have roots in Caucasian Albania. They managed to preserve their traditions, language and culture. Today they practice Orthodox Christianity, and you will be welcomed with their kindness to see their church. Finally, you will reach your last destination, Sheki town, and will start a guided tour. The sightseeing tour will include the Upper Town and the magnificent Palace of Sheki Khans. The palace once served as a summer residence of khans and nowadays impresses with its lavish design and surrounding chinar trees. The Shebeke craft workshop will be the last destination.

Day 5

On this day, you will head to Georgia. After crossing the Azerbaijan–Georgia (Lagodekhi) border, you will meet your Georgian representatives and begin your journey toward Tbilisi. Along the way, you won't miss the chance to stroll through the cozy streets of Signaghi, a picturesque town often referred to as the "City of Love." Despite its small size, Signaghi is rich in historical and cultural heritage, offering breathtaking views, charming architecture, and a warm, welcoming atmosphere. After your visit to Signaghi, you will continue to Tbilisi, where you will stay overnight. Tbilisi is considered one of the most cosmopolitan cities in the South Caucasus. Its vibrant atmosphere and the seamless blend of modern life with ancient history leave a lasting impression on every visitor.

Note: You will cross the land border from Azerbaijan to Georgia on foot. There will be a walk of approximately 700 m from the Azerbaijan customs area to the Georgia customs area, which includes a few uphill sections. For your comfort, we recommend packing lighter luggage that can be easily wheeled or carried.

Day 6

After breakfast, you'll have a short trip to Mtskheta, which was the first capital of Georgia from the 3rd century BC to the 5th century AD. The town is considered the religious centre of Georgia. Our excursion will start with a visit to the Cathedral of the 11th century – Svetitskhoveli. The next sight to visit is Jvari Temple, located at the top of the hill, which offers a fascinating view of the confluence of the two rivers Kura and Aragvi. After your return to Tbilisi, you'll continue with a city tour including an in-depth exploration of the old town. The trip will start from the historic district of Metekhi, where you will see the Assumption Church located on the picturesque hill. Next stop will be the Bridge of Peace – designed by a well-known Italian architect; it is one of the most famous city landmarks. Hereafter, you will go up to the Narikala Fortress, situated on a hill. You will reach the fortress by the cable car, and at the top, a spectacular view of the city opens. Going down by foot, the excursion will continue to the sulfuric baths – a famous royal bath complex (XVII-XIX centuries), standing on the warm natural sulphur springs. That is one of the main attractions of the Old Town. Stroll around cosy Shardeni Street, named after the French traveller Jean Chardin. The street has an architecture resembling Paris and is full of cosy cafes, boutiques, and interesting galleries. The way will continue to the Juma Mosque located on the Botanical Street. Visit to Meydan Square, one of the central squares of Old Town. Excursion to Sioni church. There is kept one of the greatest relics of Georgia, the cross of St. Patriarchate.
