Day 5

The day will start with a trip to Martvili Canyon – a beautiful and extraordinary natural gem located in the west of Georgia. It was discovered quite recently, but thanks to its beauty it has already become truly famous. Tourists from all over Georgia come to see this wonderful place, enjoy the scenery, the waterfalls and take a boat trip in the river. Your trip will continue to Kutaisi – the historical city of Georgia. Kutaisi is beautifully divided into two parts by the Rioni River, the parts are connected by several bridges, among which the White Bridge stands out. First of all, you will visit Gelati Monastery which is a living symbol of Georgia's Golden Age and is protected by UNESCO. Unique for its mosaics and wall paintings Gelati represents the flourishing mediaeval architecture. The complex comprises a monastery, an academy and a church with one of the most well-preserved frescoes of Georgian iconography.
