Detailed itinerary

Day 1

Arrival in the airport Zvartnots. Then, transfer to the hotel. Spend free time at night in Yerevan. Yerevan is the capital of Armenia, its largest city and the administrative, cultural, and industrial centre. Yerevan is often referred to as the city of contradictions where modernity is interweaving with antiquity. It is filled with a cosy atmosphere; there is no hustle and bustle and you will feel friendliness and hospitality. More interesting facts about Yerevan, you will learn the next day during your guided city tour.

Overnight: Hotel in Yerevan

Day 2

The day will start from tour to Kari Lake located on the slope of Mount Aragats at 3190 m. The clear and pure water of the lake is shining under the sun rays by admiring its beauty. The path continues to the middle-aged fortress of Amberd. Along the road, you will stop following to the abnormal phenomenon, where the river flows up and the car without a driver rolls up the road via picking up speed. Afterwards, the tour continues to Ashtarak town, where you can be guests in an Armenian family. Here master-class baking sweet sujukh will be made special for you (Armenian sweet, baked with walnuts and grape juice). Owners will also show how to marinate meat for Armenian BBQ, called "khorovats", and by your choice, you can fry it on fire independently. In the local resident's garden, you can gather flavoured seasonal fruits and enjoy your lunch at the fresh air (depending on weather). After returning to Yerevan in the evening, you will visit one of the wine bars in Saryan Street, then degustate Armenian wine with various types of cheese.

Day 3

The third day will start with a tour to the XIII-century cave monastery of Geghard, located in the deep gorge, which became a Heritage Site of UNESCO in 2000. This unique monastery is carved into the rocks; also, adjacent rocks are the part of the complex. You will visit the only survived exemplar of Hellenistic architecture, Garni Temple in the village of Garni. Here you will visit the resident's family restaurant, where you will have delicious lunch and master-class baking tolma with grape leaves. Finally, after approximately one hour of drive by car, you will be near to Sevan Lake, named as "Ultramarine Pearl of Armenia", which is situated at 2000 m above sea level. You will also visit Sevanavank Monastery where you could enjoy the stunning view of the lake. You will have dinner in a Christian house, where you will degustate local fish BBQ and Sevan cancer kebab. You will return to Yerevan in the evening.
